ELEVENTH WARD.

A farewell party was given in the Eleventh ward meeting house last night in honor of James P. Freeze and family. They have been residents of the Eleventh ward since 1864; always active in the ward organizations, and they are now going to make their home in the Granite Stake; and as a be-tokening of the esteem in which they are held, their friends gathered to the meeting house last night until the building was packed. The audience was not made up of members of the ward only, but there were friends from all parts of the city, including Apostle Heber J. Grant, the presidency of the Salt Lake Stake and many others. Mr. Freeze was superintendent of the Supeze was the president of the first Y. L. M. I. A. organized in the Church and is now a member of the general board. She has stood for a long time among the leading women of the state, Mrs. Jane Freeze was a counselor in the Relief Society and was formerly nember of the Stake board of the Y.

The exercises were opened by the congregation singing, "How Firm a Foundation." The prayer was offered by Elder Charles Livingstone, and then by Edger Charles Livingstone, and ther a quartet, composed of Mrs. Louie F Keysor, Annie Peterson, Prissie Liv-ingstone and Vera Felt sang, "The Tide of Life." Remarks were made by Bishop Robert Morris and John . Knight gave a sketch of the life of J P. Freeze, Annie Peterson gave a sketch of Mary A. Freeze, and Lizzie Leaker spoke on the career of Jane Freeze, Remarks were then made President Angus M. Cannon, and his counselors, Joseph E. Taylor and C. W Penrose; Apostle Heber J. Grant, Mrs. A. W. McCune and Mrs. Nellie Taylor. J. H. Felt then presented Mr. Freeze with a silk umbrella in behalf of the acting teachers of the ward, Miss May Anderson in behalf of the Y. L. M. ! of the ward presented Mary A Freeze with a rocking chair, and he mother, Mrs. Burnham, with a cup saucer and plate, and Jane Freeze was presented with a chair, by Miss Laura Cushman, in behalf of the Rellef So-city. A large boquet of beautiful flowers accompanied each gift, and the recipients responded in a most happy manner. During the evening the ward work of Mrs. Lillie Freeze was also affectionately referred to by several o the speakers. The presentations were interspersed with a selection from "Jack the Giant Killer," by Miss Ruby Peterson and Erma Felt; a comic song by Harry Hulbert, and a quartet by members of the Wickens family. The closing hymn, "We Thank Thee, O God, for a Prophet," was sung by the congregation, and the benediction was pro nounced by Elder Isaac Sears. A season of handshaking then ensued.

BUSINESS NOTES

The salt trade will soon have another big bidder for patronage in the Sears Utah Salt company, which was organized in this city yesterday afternoon. The capital stock is fixed at $190,000, in shares of $100 each. The company owns a lease on 220 acres of land on the east shore of Great Salt Lake. The lease was obtained from Wm. H. Blood of Kaysville, and is for twenty-five years from May 1, 1901, at a yearly rental of $110. Also a lease on a tract of shore land eighty rods in length by forty rods deep, adjoining the first mentioned property. The second lease was given Simon Bamberger and the Salt Park Resort company. Both were made to isaac Sears, who turned them over to the company for 51 per cent of the capital stock. The officers are as follows: Albert Fisher, president; Isaac Sears, vice president; Joseph S. Wells, secretary, and J. E. Calne, treasurer. These with Robert Morris, constitute the directorate. President Fisher owns 405 shares, Vice President Sears 510 shares, and the remaining shares are held by the other officers. It is the intention of the company to erect a mil in time to handle some salt this year.

Emma S. Jones and William X. Jones have conveyed to Thomas W. Jones part of lot 7, block 49, plat C. situate on South Temple street between Fifth and Sixth West streets, for a consideration of $6,300.

At the session of the members of the First Presbyterian church last evening to discuss plans for raising money in order that the new church may be erected it was decided to put the amount to be raised at $100,000, and the session was constituted a committee of the whole to work for subscriptions.
